GORE-TEX INFINIUM™ Stretch Gloves Technology

In accordance with the product focus of the GORE® Wear Fall Winter Collection 2019 – we provide you with a special POS Package ensuring that customers will be convinced by the special presentation of the topic at the POS.

GORE-TEX INFINIUM™ Stretch Gloves imitate the natural hand shape with their unique 3D technology. With the patent pending construction using up to 35% less material and 30% fewer seams it is now possible to create gloves that are close-fitting. Hence there is no need to take them off when tactility is needed. Another special attribute of the gloves is its close-to-skin fit which increases the breathability, leaving hands comfortably dry and protected in cool and windy weather.

Shelf Display
Available for each glove using this special technology. Demonstrate and illustrate the new 3D technology and key facts of each style. Display key facts on the front and back side of the glove, as it may be printed on both sides.

Digital communication tools
Product visuals with USP communication, Banners, Social Media Assets and content for Newsletters.
Model of a hand

To facilitate an additional eye-catching presentation, the usual Shelf Display may be complemented with a model of a hand exhibiting a black glove. Through that model the demonstration of the perfect fit that mimics the shape of the hand and construction with minimized seems, is facilitated.

GORE-TEX INFINIUM™ Soft-Lined Garments with persistant beading

The GORE-TEX INFINIUM™ Soft-Lined Garments with persistant beading merge ideal characteristics from several products into one. The best of GORE® Wear - for the best of you.

To reveal the products’ benefits to the customers, a special communication toolbox for GORE-TEX INFINIUM™ Soft-Lined Garments will be available.
